The foregoing persons were the first to contribute $100 each to the Red Cross fund and to announce their intention of becoming charter members of the Red Cross organization now being formed in Nodaway county for the purpose of raising the $30,000 quota which the county must contribute to the fund.

A meeting to form the preliminary organization of the Red Cross chapter for Nodaway county will be held at the Commercial club rooms at 7:30 o'clock tonight. Every person interested in the success of the movement in the county is urged to come and to add his name to the list of charter members. The list will be kept open as there are still many others who are anxious to add their names, and who have not been seen in connection with the work.

At this meeting arrangements will be made for the "drive" which has only started in Nodaway county. It is expected that each town in the county will take up the work with eagerness and communicate with Dr. F. R. Anthony regarding their quota.

The charter authorizing a chapter of the Red Cross in Nodaway county will be sent for tonight and the authorities will telegraph acceptance at once so that the work of the organization will not be delayed in Maryville.

Dr. F. R. Anthony was appointed temporary chairman of the organization by the Commercial club which has the matter in hand, and will hold this position until the permanent organization is formed.

Here is Nodaway county's chance to provide for its boys, who will be in the trenches of France within the next few months. Contribute your mite to the Red Cross fund this week and show that you have the interest of your nation at heart.

Before long news of American causalties will be coming daily from France. Many will be killed, but more will be wounded and in need of competent medical attention. Does any person in Nodaway county wish to see our boys operated on without an anesthetic, or cared for without the necessary medicines and bandages?

Do your part today then in giving your money for the success of the Red Cross. Don't wait until it is too late to save countless lives lost because of lack of proper treatment. Have the money on the spot, so that unnecessary blood will not be shed through the thoughtlessness of the well ones at home.

The reason that the Red Cross should be supported is because of its international character. The members of this society can go onto any battlefield and do their work without fear of molestation. The only thing that keeps them back is the lack of funds, and these are going to be supplied in part by the people of Nodaway county.

One dollar for every person in the county means that Nodaway can give its quota of $30,000 without hardship to anyone. The drive in Maryville is on. Respond for the sake of your son who may soon be needing the very care for which you are paying.

HOW FOOD IS WASTED

U. S. Department of Agriculture Gives Various Ways of Assisting in Food Conservation.

The following article published by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, tells of the various ways in which food is wasted:

Food is wasted: (a) When we eat more food than our bodies need for growth and repair and to supply energy for our work. Overeating tends to poor health and fat instead of brawn, makes us sluggish and indolent instead of energetic and resourceful. Eat enough and no more. Eat for physical and mental efficiency.

(b) When food is burned or spoiled in cooking. Improperly prepared or poorly seasoned food will be left on the table and probably wasted. Buy food wisely and then prepare it carefully.

(c) When too much food is prepared for a meal. Unserved portions are apt to be thrown into the garbage pail or allowed to spoil. Many housekeepers do not know how to use leftover foods to make them appetizing.

(d) When too much food is served at a meal. Uneaten portions are left on the plate and later thrown into the garbage pail. Learn to know the needs of your family and serve each no more than you think he will want.

(e) When anything edible is allowed to go to the garbage pail or allowed to spoil for lack of proper handling.

(f) When food is handled carelessly. Buy clean food, keep it clean until used, and be neat in all details of cooking and serving. This lessens waste and is a valuable health measure as well.

BEGINS SATURDAY

SECOND TRADE WEEK SHOULD BE MORE SUCCESSFUL THAN FIRST

BUYERS REMEMBER WEEK

They Know That Many Bargains Were Offered and Fare Was Refunded Without A Word.

Saturday begins the second Trade Week put on in Maryville and if it is only half so successful as the first one, Maryville merchants will have much to be thankful for.

But there are many reasons why this Trade Week should be even more successful than the one in December. The buyers from all over the country during that week remember the splendid bargains which they received in all lines of merchandise and groceries and they also remember that the fare-refund was made without a word when the cards were shown at the Commercial club office.

But most of all they remember the unfailing courtesy of the Maryville business men and clerks and they are glad to come back to Maryville and to renew old acquaintance in the stores.

Then, too, there are so many places in Maryville where the country customer may rest and enjoy a few moments of quiet. The rest rooms at the court house at Edwards Cafe and at the Farmers Trust company Bank are always open to the person away from home and the use of these three rooms are free to all, not being at all dependent upon whether money is spent in town or not. For this reason a mother may bring her children to town and be assured of places where they may rest. Lunch, too, may be taken to these rooms and eaten, if such a way is preferred.

Every town in the county will be represented at the sales next week. All of the stores are offering bargains that are sure to draw the customers, and in addition, the fare to and from town, whether by rail, by automobile or by buggy, will be refunded to the purchaser, provided a certain amount of goods is bought.

MUSKRATS STORE THEIR FOOD

Use 8-inch Tiling for Larder, but are Trapped Before They Use the Corn—Five Bushels Found.

This is the story of several muskrats, which harvested a farmers corn and which didn't get to eat it on account of the tricks of the trapper.

Jim Lucas, who lives on the Sam Conlin place, southeast of Barnard, tiled a long slough on the farm with 8-inch main tiling and smaller lateral tiling.

This spring he found the tiling stopped up, and then he remembered that the boys had found a muskrat den in the slough early in the spring. He decided to investigate. He dug down beneath the tiling and endeavored to lift it, but he found that he couldn't. He broke a section of it and discovered that it was full of ear corn. The muskrats had harvested his last year's crop and had filled the 8-inch tiling with the corn for a distance of 150 feet. When the water came in the corn swelled and the water could not get through.

Mr. Lucas took out the corn and found that five bushels had been stored in the tiling. The muskrats were well prepared for the winter, but their whereabouts was discovered and they were trapped before they had a chance to dispose of their winter food.

The corn, which was Reid's Yellow Dent, was faded to a beautiful white by the action of the water.

ORIGIN OF THE RED CROSS

Organization Was Born on the Field of Solferino in 1859—Clara Barton U. S. Organizer.

Many persons are wondering about the origin of the Red Cross which is foremost among the humanitarian organizations of the country. A little of its history is appropriate this week when its aims need to be brought clearly before the public.

The Red Cross was born on the field of Solferino, June 24, 1859. Henry Dunant, a Swiss, walking over that battlefield saw 16,000 French and Sardinians and 17,000 Austrians lying dead or dying. The inadequacy of the army medical staffs to care for the pressing needs of the wounded was terribly apparent. Hundreds of young soldiers of both armies died simply from lack of care and attention. For years the sufferings of the wounded men and of fever parched throats haunted him. His little book, "Un Souvenir de Solferino," appeared in 1868 as fruit of his experiences in the battle field.

The sympathies of the civilized world were touched by the book and his efforts were rewarded by the creation of an International Relief society in Geneva Switzerland, in 1863-64.

It was not until eighteen years later that the United States, through the efforts of Clara Barton, entered into the international agreement. The emblem chosen for the society, a red cross on a field of white, gave it its name.

The role of the men and women who serve under the Red Cross is as heroic as that of the boys who carry Old Glory into battle. They will be meeting death, the common foe, shoulder to shoulder. Both will be offering their lives that others may live. It takes the same quality of bravery to minister to the sufferings of a wounded soldier under fire as it does to rush into battle.

As yet the terrible necessity for Red Cross work has not come home to America. We have no long lists of dead and wounded. The men chosen as those most fit by strength and intelligence to carry the flag of our country have not yet sent back their calls for help from the battle fields of France.

But at the most, these calls of the stricken are only a few months away. Then America will know the grimness of war. If it fails to meet the appeal now for the $100,000,000 asked by the President, the calls from the wounded will be unheeded. For what it saves now in money, it will pay in men then.

Mrs. Coburn as Chee Moo

OF the tens of thousands of endorsements of "The Yellow Jacket," highly prized by Mr. and Mrs. Coburn, one written by the celebrated author Mr. Booth Tarkington is very much appreciated. Mr. Tarkington saw this Chinese play for the first time in Indianapolis and soon after wrote, "it is the most delightful thing on our stage today. I noted that the knowing people laughed — the gallery and the tired business man had a happy evening. You gave an extraordinary treat; beauty and charm and pathos and a fun so exquisite that it brought tears to the eyes of laughter."

Mr. and Mrs. Coburn, with their 25 supporting artists will offer "The Yellow Jacket," as Mr. Tarkington saw it, next Monday evening on the Normal school grounds.

The foregoing picture represents Mrs. Coburn as she appears in the charming role of the heroine, "Chee Moo."

ONLY SOUND MEN WANTED

High Physical Standard Will Be Maintained in Picking Men for the National Army.

Washington, June 20.—America's new armies will be made up of the finest physical manhood of the Nation.

Army surgeons today estimated that nearly 40 per cent of the men brought to the colors by selective draft will be rejected upon the first physical scrutiny, so severe are the examinations. Probably 2 million men must be drawn to get the 625,000 for the first levy. At present the rejections in the regular army average 40 to 60 per cent of the applicants.

After undergoing the severe examinations imposed by the army surgeons, the chosen ones will form the best army physically in the world. In no other army are the physical requirements so hard to meet. Even Germany's armies are picked on a less stringent scale of requirements.

Here are the general requirements of the army:

Height not less than five feet four inches nor more than six feet. Weight not less than 128 pounds nor more than 190 pounds.

Lungs and heart must be well nigh perfect. Any heart "murmur" disqualifies. Hearing and sight must be good. Color blindness is not necessarily a disqualification.

Chronic disease or mental disorders cause rejection. Loss of fingers or toes or an ear are disqualifications. Flat feet or deformed feet are also causes for rejection. The surgeons examine closely for any affliction of the kidneys or chest. At least four molar teeth are necessary.

"This war will be won by young men," said an official of the medical corps. "That's why we will win—we've got the most and the best young men."

WOMAN NOW IN PERFECT HEALTH

What Came From Reading a Pinkham Advertisement.

Paterson, N. J. — "I thank you for the Lydia E. Pinkham remedies as they have made me well and healthy. Sometime ago I felt so run down, had pains in my back and side, was very irregular, tired, nervous, had such bad dreams, did not feel like eating and had short breath. I read your advertisement in the newspapers and decided to try a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It worked from the first bottle, so I took a second and a third, also a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Purifier, and now I am just as well as any other woman. I advise every woman, single or married, who is troubled with any of the aforesaid ailments, to try your wonderful Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier and I am sure they will help her to get rid of her troubles as they did me." — Mrs. ELSIE J. Praises Missouri Farmers.

But I wish every American might witness the uncomplaining determination with which the Missouri farmers have gone about the immense task of repairing, so far as possible, the crop damage wrought by the storm. The sight would cheer the truly patriotic heart on which the issue of this great war lies heavily. God willing, we shall yet have a good crop of corn in 1917. Several Northwest Missouri towns have come to the aid of the farmers with financial backing so that every farmer, whatever the status of his bank account, may have plenty of seed corn with which to replant and ample help to hasten the work. There's no lack of the true fighting spirit in Missouri—A. A. Jeffrey in Missouri Ruralist.

Double patriotism—the giving of both life and money—is revealed in a letter to the Grant City Times by a former Worth county boy now in the U. S. camps at Barrancas, Florida. He states that his company of about 200 men had bought $15,000 worth of Liberty bonds.

Union Prayer Circle Meets.

The Union Prayer circle met this morning with Mrs. L. E. Dean. Twelve members were present. The following reading was given by Mrs. George Conrad:

THE STORY OF A FAMOUS HYMN.
Crossing the Bar.

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar
When I put out to sea.

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell
When I embark.

For though from out the bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.
—Alfred Tennyson.

As Tennyson's nurse was sitting one day at his bedside, sharing to a degree the general anxiety about the patient she said to him suddenly:

"You have written a great many poems, sir, but I have never heard anybody say that there is a hymn among them all. I wish, sir, you would write a hymn while you are lying on your sick bed. It might help and comfort many a poor sufferer."

The next morning, when the nurse had taken her quiet place at the bedside, the poet handed her a scrap of paper, saying: "Here is the hymn you wished me to write."

She took it from his hands with expressions of grateful thanks. It proved to be "Crossing the Bar," the poem that was sung in Westminster Abbey at Tennyson's funeral, and which has touched so many hearts.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. R. S. Braniger, with Mrs. George Conrad as leader.

PAY $500 MORE AND GET A RUGGED, THRIFTY CAR WHOSE FIRST NAME IS QUALITY AND LAST NAME IS C H A L M E R S

A well known man said the other day: "I have owned three kinds of cars. One was a low priced small car that was uncomfortable to ride in and costing me money right along in repairs.

"One was a high priced great big car that kept me in hot water much of the time paying the gas and tire bills.

"I found relief in a Chalmers. It just suits me. I get all the room and all the car I want, and I find because of its inbuilt quality that it is far more economical than the smaller, cheaper car with which neither I nor the Mrs. was ever pleased."

We feel that as a whole the Chalmers car fits in just between the two in a way that gives just about what nine out of ten want—a sensible car with a sensible price.

Sensible because it has a quality backbone and ribs, and sensible because it is thrifty. Which is interesting in war times and important. For, as the Scotch say, "A dollar saved is a dollar earned."

Have you ever been behind the wheel of a Chalmers?

Patriotism and Business

Every good citizen at this time should do his share toward strengthening the Federal Reserve Banking System which our Government has created with its billion dollars of resources to stand back of its member banks and all their depositors.

You can contribute directly to the strength of this system, and at the same time secure its protection by depositing your money with us, since part of every dollar you deposit with us goes directly into the new system, where it is always ready for you when wanted.

This is a suggestion for prompt action.

West Will Raise $15,000,000.00

San Francisco, June 20.—The West, from the Mississippi to the Pacific, has promised to raise a sum greater than the fifteen million asked of it by the Red Cross War Council. Every State has responded to the appeal, and many of them have delighted the Western committee by offering to increase the amounts apportioned them.

California leads the list with $3,250,000. Texas is next with $2,500,000. Kansas follows with $1,600,000. Four big States have promised a million each,—Washington, Colorado, Oklahoma and Nebraska. Another million will be raised by North and South Dakota together. Iowa, with the exception of three big cities, will raise half a million. And Missouri, with the exception of two cities, will do the same.

Oregon has set the mark at $700,000. Idaho guarantees $400,000. Montana is down for $300,000. Arizona and Utah will each raise a quarter of a million. New Mexico and Arkansas have promised $200,000 apiece, and Nevada and Wyoming say they are good for $100,000 each.

The total is $15,850,000, — nearly a million more than the West was asked to give.

Total	$1,300

The foregoing persons were the first to contribute $100 each to the Red Cross fund and to announce their intention of becoming charter members of the Red Cross organization now being formed in Nodaway county for the purpose of raising the $30,000 quota which the county must contribute to the fund.

A meeting to form the preliminary organization of the Red Cross chapter for Nodaway county will be held at the Commercial club rooms at 7:30 o'clock tonight. Every person interested in the success of the movement in the county is urged to come and to add his name to the list of charter members. The list will be kept open as there are still many others who are anxious to add their names, and who have not been seen in connection with the work.

At this meeting arrangements will be made for the "drive" which has only started in Nodaway county. It is expected that each town in the county will take up the work with eagerness and communicate with Dr. F. R. Anthony regarding their quota.

The charter authorizing a chapter of the Red Cross in Nodaway county will be sent for tonight and the authorities will telegraph acceptance at once so that the work of the organization will not be delayed in Maryville.

Dr. F. R. Anthony was appointed temporary chairman of the organization by the Commercial club which has the matter in hand, and will hold this position until the permanent organization is formed.

Here is Nodaway county's chance to provide for its boys, who will be in the trenches of France within the next few months. Contribute your mite to the Red Cross fund this week and show that you have the interest of your nation at heart.

Before long news of American casualties will be coming daily from France. Many will be killed, but more will be wounded and in need of competent medical attention. Does any person in Nodaway county wish to see our boys operated on without an anesthetic, or cared for without the necessary medicines and bandages?

Do your part today then in giving your money for the success of the Red Cross. Don't wait until it is too late to save countless lives lost because of lack of proper treatment. Have the money on the spot, so that unnecessary blood will not be shed through the thoughtlessness of the well ones at home.

The reason that the Red Cross should be supported is because of its international character. The members of this society can go onto any battlefield and do their work without fear of molestation. The only thing that keeps them back is the lack of funds, and these are going to be supplied in part by the people of Nodaway county.

One dollar for every person in the county means that Nodaway can give its quota of $30,000 without hardship to anyone. The drive in Maryville is on. Respond for the sake of your son who may soon be needing the very care for which you are paying.

HOW FOOD IS WASTED

U. S. Department of Agriculture Gives Various Ways of Assisting in Food Conservation.

The following article published by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, tells of the various ways in which food is wasted:

Food is wasted: (a) When we eat more food than our bodies need for growth and repair and to supply energy for our work. Overeating tends to poor health and fat instead of brawn, makes us sluggish and indolent instead of energetic and resourceful. Eat enough and no more. Eat for physical and mental efficiency.

(b) When food is burned or spoiled in cooking. Improperly prepared or poorly seasoned food will be left on the table and probably wasted. Buy food wisely and then prepare it carefully.

(c) When too much food is prepared for a meal. Unserved portions are apt to be thrown into the garbage pail or allowed to spoil. Many housekeepers do not know how to use left-over foods to make them appetizing.

(d) When too much food is served at a meal. Uneaten portions are left on the plate and later thrown into the garbage pail. Learn to know the needs of your family and serve each no more than you think he will want.

(e) When anything edible is allowed to go to the garbage pail or allowed to spoil for lack of proper handling.

(f) When food is handled carelessly. Buy clean food, keep it clean until used, and be neat in all details of cooking and serving. This lessens waste and is a valuable health measure as well.

BEGINS SATURDAY

SECOND TRADE WEEK SHOULD BE MORE SUCCESSFUL THAN FIRST

BUYERS REMEMBER WEEK

They Know That Many Bargains Were Offered and Fare Was Refunded Without A Word.

Saturday begins the second Trade Week put on in Maryville and if it is only half so successful as the first one, Maryville merchants will have much to be thankful for.

But there are many reasons why this Trade Week should be even more successful than the one in December. The buyers from all over the country during that week remember the splendid bargains which they received in all lines of merchandise and groceries and they also remember that the fare-refund was made without a word when the cards were shown at the Commercial club office.

But most of all they remember the unfailing courtesy of the Maryville business men and clerks and they are glad to come back to Maryville and to renew old acquaintance in the stores.

Then, too, there are so many places in Maryville where the country customer may rest and enjoy a few moments of quiet. The rest rooms at the court house at Edwards Cafe and at the Farmers Trust company Bank are always open to the person away from home and the use of these three rooms are free to all, not being at all dependent upon whether money is spent in town or not. For this reason a mother may bring her children to town and be assured of places where they may rest. Lunch, too, may be taken to these rooms and eaten, if such a way is preferred.

Every town in the county will be represented at the sales next week. All of the stores are offering bargains that are sure to draw the customers, and in addition, the fare to and from town, whether by rail, by automobile or by buggy, will be refunded to the purchaser, provided a certain amount of goods is bought.

MUSKRATS STORE THEIR FOOD

Use 8-inch Tiling for Larder, but are Trapped Before They Use the Corn—Five Bushels Found.

This is the story of several muskrats, which harvested a farmers corn and which didn't get to eat it on account of the tricks of the trapper.

Jim Lucas, who lives on the Sam Conlin place, southeast of Barnard, tiled a long slough on the farm with 8-inch main tiling and smaller lateral tiling.

This spring he found the tiling stopped up, and then he remembered that the boys had found a muskrat den in the slough early in the spring. He decided to investigate. He dug down beneath the tiling and endeavored to lift it, but he found that he couldn't. He broke a section of it and discovered that it was full of ear corn. The muskrats had harvested his last year's crop and had filled the 8-inch tiling with the corn for a distance of 150 feet. When the water came in the corn swelled and the water could not get through.

Mr. Lucas took out the corn and found that five bushels had been stored in the tiling. The muskrats were well prepared for the winter, but their whereabouts was discovered and they were trapped before they had a chance to dispose of their winter food.

The corn, which was Reid's Yellow Dent, was faded to a beautiful white by the action of the water.

ORIGIN OF THE RED CROSS

Organization Was Born on the Field of Solferino in 1859—Clara Barton U. S. Organizer.

Many persons are wondering about the origin of the Red Cross which is foremost among the humanitarian organizations of the country. A little of its history is appropriate this week when its aims need to be brought clearly before the public.

The Red Cross was born on the field of Solferino, June 24, 1859. Henry Dunant, a Swiss, walking over that battlefield saw 16,000 French and Sardinians and 17,000 Austrians lying dead or dying. The inadequacy of the army medical staffs to care for the pressing needs of the wounded was terribly apparent. Hundreds of young soldiers of both armies died simply from lack of care and attention. For years the sufferings of the wounded men and of fever parched throats haunted him. His little book, "Un Souvenir de Solferino," appeared in 1868 as fruit of his experiences in the battle field.

The sympathies of the civilized world were touched by the book and his efforts were rewarded by the creation of an International Relief society in Geneva Switzerland, in 1863-64.

It was not until eighteen years later that the United States, through the efforts of Clara Barton, entered into the international agreement. The emblem chosen for the society, a red cross on a field of white, gave it its name.

The role of the men and women who serve under the Red Cross is as heroic as that of the boys who carry Old Glory into battle. They will be meeting death, the common foe, shoulder to shoulder. Both will be offering their lives that others may live. It takes the same quality of bravery to minister to the sufferings of a wounded soldier under fire as it does to rush into battle.

As yet the terrible necessity for Red Cross work has not come home to America. We have no long lists of dead and wounded. The men chosen as those most fit by strength and intelligence to carry the flag of our country have not yet sent back their calls for help from the battle fields of France.

But at the most, these calls of the stricken are only a few months away. Then America will know the grimness of war. If it fails to meet the appeal now for the $100,000,000 asked by the President, the calls from the wounded will be unheeded. For what it saves now in money, it will pay in men then.

Mrs. Coburn as Chee Moo

OF the tens of thousands of endorsements of "The Yellow Jacket," highly prized by Mr. and Mrs. Coburn, one written by the celebrated author Mr. Booth Tarkington is very much appreciated. Mr. Tarkington saw this Chinese play for the first time in Indianapolis and soon after wrote, "it is the most delightful thing on our stage today. I noted that the knowing people laughed — the gallery and the tired business man had a happy evening. You gave an extraordinary treat; beauty and charm and pathos and a fun so exquisite that it brought tears to the eyes of laughter."

Mr. and Mrs. Coburn, with their 25 supporting artists will offer "The Yellow Jacket," as Mr. Tarkington saw it, next Monday evening on the Normal school grounds.

The foregoing picture represents Mrs. Coburn as she appears in the charming role of the heroine, "Chee Moo."

ONLY SOUND MEN WANTED

High Physical Standard Will Be Maintained in Picking Men for the National Army.

Washington, June 20.—America's new armies will be made up of the finest physical manhood of the Nation.

Army surgeons today estimated that nearly 40 per cent of the men brought to the colors by selective draft will be rejected upon the first physical scrutiny, so severe are the examinations. Probably 2 million men must be drawn to get the 625,000 for the first levy. At present the rejections in the regular army average 40 to 60 per cent of the applicants.

After undergoing the severe examinations imposed by the army surgeons, the chosen ones will form the best army physically in the world. In no other army are the physical requirements so hard to meet. Even Germany's armies are picked on a less stringent scale of requirements.

Here are the general requirements of the army:

Height not less than five feet four inches nor more than six feet. Weight not less than 128 pounds nor more than 190 pounds.

Lungs and heart must be well nigh perfect. Any heart "murmur" disqualifies. Hearing and sight must be good. Color blindness is not necessarily a disqualification.

Chronic disease or mental disorders cause rejection. Loss of fingers or toes or an ear are disqualifications. Flat feet or deformed feet are also causes for rejection. The surgeons examine closely for any affliction of the kidneys or chest. At least four molar teeth are necessary.

"This war will be won by young men," said an official of the medical corps. "That's why we will win—we've got the most and the best young men."

WOMAN NOW IN PERFECT HEALTH

What Came From Reading a Pinkham Advertisement.

Paterson, N. J. — "I thank you for the Lydia E. Pinkham remedies as they have made me well and healthy. Sometime ago I felt so run down, had pains in my back and side, was very irregular, tired, nervous, had such bad dreams, did not feel like eating and had short breath. I read your advertisement in the newspapers and decided to try a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It worked from the first bottle, so I took a second and a third, also a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Purifier, and now I am just as well as any other woman. I advise every woman, single or married, who is troubled with any of the aforesaid ailments, to try your wonderful Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier and I am sure they will help her to get rid of her troubles as they did me." — Mrs. ELSIE J. CALLS FOR VOLUNTEERS.
(Bulletin)

Washington, June 20.—President Wilson issued a call for 70,000 volunteers for the war on German autocracy late this afternoon. In his proclamation he designated th eweek of June 23 to 30 as recruiting week for the regular army.

Praises Missouri Farmers.

But I wish every American might witness the uncomplaining determination with which the Missouri farmers have gone about the immense task of repairing, so far as possible, the crop damage wrought by the storm. The sight would cheer the truly patriotic heart on which the issue of this great war lies heavily. God willing, we shall yet have a good crop of corn in 1917. Several Northwest Missouri towns have come to the aid of the farmers with financial backing so that every farmer, whatever the status of his bank account, may have plenty of seed corn with which to replant and ample help to hasten the work. There's no lack of the true fighting spirit in Missouri—A. A. Jeffrey in Missouri Ruralist.

Double patriotism—the giving of both life and money—is revealed in a letter to the Grant City Times by a former Worth county boy now in the U. S. camps at Barrancas, Florida. He states that his company of about 200 men had bought $15,000 worth of Liberty bonds.

Union Prayer Circle Meets.

The Union Prayer circle met this morning with Mrs. L. E. Dean. Twelve members were present. The following reading was given by Mrs. George Conrad:

THE STORY OF A FAMOUS HYMN.
Crossing the Bar.

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar
When I put out to sea.

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell
When I embark.

For though from out the bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.
—Alfred Tennyson.

As Tennyson's nurse was sitting one day at his bedside, sharing to a degree the general anxiety about the patient she said to him suddenly:

"You have written a great many poems, sir, but I have never heard anybody say that there is a hymn among them all. I wish, sir, you would write a hymn while you are lying on your sick bed. It might help and comfort many a poor sufferer."

The next morning, when the nurse had taken her quiet place at the bedside, the poet handed her a scrap of paper, saying: "Here is the hymn you wished me to write."

She took it from his hands with expressions of grateful thanks. It proved to be "Crossing the Bar," the poem that was sung in Westminster Abbey at Tennyson's funeral, and which has touched so many hearts.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. R. S. Braniger, with Mrs. George Conrad as leader.

The M. I. circle held their annual picnic yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. R. Holt. This was the last meeting until September. About twenty members and two visitors were present. The visitors were: Gertrude Garrett and Hettie Mae Woodward. A splendid program was given during the afternoon. Several piano selections were given by Miss Woodward and Mrs. E. B. Woodward and Mrs. Halley each gave a reading. Mrs. W. A. Bailey read a paper on "The Circle and its Past," and Mrs. L. R. Holt read a paper on "The Future of the Circle." After the program elaborate refreshments were served from the porch of the beautiful home.

PAY $500 MORE AND GET A RUGGED, THRIFTY CAR WHOSE FIRST NAME IS QUALITY AND LAST NAME IS C H A L M E R S

A well known man said the other day: "I have owned three kinds of cars. One was a low priced small car that was uncomfortable to ride in and costing me money right along in repairs.

"One was a high priced great big car that kept me in hot water much of the time paying the gas and tire bills.

"I found relief in a Chalmers. It just suits me. I get all the room and all the car I want, and I find because of its inbuilt quality that it is far more economical than the smaller, cheaper car with which neither I nor the Mrs. was ever pleased."

We feel that as a whole the Chalmers car fits in just between the two in a way that gives just about what nine out of ten want—a sensible car with a sensible price.

Sensible because it has a quality backbone and ribs, and sensible because it is thrifty. Which is interesting in war times and important. For, as the Scotch say, "A dollar saved is a dollar earned."

Have you ever been behind the wheel of a Chalmers?

You can contribute directly to the strength of this system, and at the same time secure its protection by depositing your money with us, since part of every dollar you deposit with us goes directly into the new system, where it is always ready for you when wanted.

West Will Raise $15,000,000.00

San Francisco, June 20.—The West, from the Mississippi to the Pacific, has promised to raise a sum greater than the fifteen million asked of it by the Red Cross War Council. Every State has responded to the appeal, and many of them have delighted the Western committee by offering to increase the amounts apportioned them.

California leads the list with $3,250,000. Texas is next with $2,500,000. Kansas follows with $1,600,000. Four big States have promised a million each,—Washington, Colorado, Oklahoma and Nebraska. Another million will be raised by North and South Dakota together. Iowa, with the exception of three big cities, will raise half a million. And Missouri, with the exception of two cities, will do the same.

Oregon has set the mark at $700,000. Idaho guarantees $400,000. Montana is down for $300,000. Arizona and Utah will each raise a quarter of a million. New Mexico and Arkansas have promised $200,000 apiece, and Nevada and Wyoming say they are good for $100,000 each.

The total is $15,850,000, — nearly a million more than the West was asked to give.
